We’re two quarters into 2019, and buyout multiples in the US remain above 12x on a median basis, according to PitchBook’s US PE Breakdown Report. Quarterly readings from 2015 to early 2016 were in the 9.3x to 10.5x range, with multiples gradually building over the past few years. Though high, investors have gotten used to such buyout multiples.

Chris Witkowsky, PE Hub & Buyouts. As anyone with even a passing interest knows, over the last decade, private equity has had quite a run: Deal multiples have hit record highs; while deal count declined, investment value grew again last year; and so-called “dry powder” – capital sitting ready to invest – hit a record high of $2 trillion in December 2018 across all fund types.
