To follow Christ means that, like him, we're also called to descend into greatness; to lay aside our rights and serve others. Yet this downward direction is contrary to everything around us. Our flesh, our training in society and the gravitational pull of the world all tug us incessantly upward to dominate and control others.

Descending Into Greatness Sermon by Steve Bond ...

John the Baptist, the greatest to ever live, according to Jesus, left us a perfect example of what it means to descend into greatness. His life had maximum impact, but it also came with maximum sacrifice. Petie Kinder • modgniK • Matthew 11:7-11

Revelation may take place on the mountain top, but communication takes place in the valley below. Worship may take place on the mountain top, but ministry takes place in the valley below. In his book, "Descending Into Greatness," Bill Hybels wrote: "Curiously, Christianity, in its purest form, is not bent on human self-fulfillment.

Way to greatness is down. The real Shocker is that Jesus asks us today to be as counter cultural as he was when he came among us as one of us. Into our competitive doggy dog world, Jesus wants us to bring humility and servanthood among those who are going for the gusto. He challenges us to deny ourselves in an age of security, fences and car alarms.
